To Maintain

- Perfect decision-making and game management: Distributing 7 assists without a single turnover in 27 minutes (94th percentile in assists, 86th percentile in turnovers) set a steady pace and consistently found open teammates (Q1 09:05, Q1 08:31, Q1 08:02, Q2 03:10, Q2 00:05, Q3 04:48, Q4 04:36).
- Peak shooting efficiency and rebounding presence: An output of 15 points on 67% from the field (4/6 for 2, 2/3 for 3) alongside 6 rebounds (5 defensive) yielded a PIR of 23 and the highest plus/minus on the roster (+14) (Q1 07:25, Q2 04:42, Q2 01:34, Q2 01:10, Q3 06:06, Q4 06:59).

To Improve

- Personal fouls in transition and half-court: 4 fouls committed (9th percentile in the league), including 2 fouls within 78 seconds in the third quarter that gave the opponent points from the line and tied the score at 54:54 (Q3 09:00, Q3 07:42, Q4 06:04). Foul accumulation forced an early exit to the bench at Q3 04:48, where during the 13 minutes you sat, the team suffered a cumulative deficit of -16 points.
- Offensive initiative and drawing fouls in crunch time: A single field goal attempt (1/1) and a lone assist in 5:45 minutes in the fourth quarter, alongside only 2 fouls drawn throughout the entire game (Q4 06:59, Q4 04:36, Q4 01:49). The lack of aggressive drives to the paint in the closing minutes limited scoring sources in a game decided by a single possession (86:88).

This Week's Practice

1. Biggest Leverage: The 4 fouls you committed resulted in sitting on the bench at Q3 04:48 and conceding direct points from the line. Action: Practice individual defense while absorbing drivers with your chest, using footwork, and keeping hands straight up, avoiding reach-ins in transition and pick-and-roll. Target: No more than 2 fouls in 28+ minutes of play, and zero fouls conceding free throws before the bonus.

2. Despite 67% accuracy from beyond the arc (2/3), a volume of 3 shots at the point guard position underutilizes your spacing ability. Action: Practice 3-pointers coming off screens (Pick & Pop / Off-ball screen) and pull-ups in transition at a volume of 100 shots per day. Target: Reaching 4 to 5 three-point attempts per game while maintaining an accuracy of 36% or higher.
3. In the fourth quarter, you were directly involved in only two scoring plays (shot and assist) in a tight game. Action: Practice quick decision-making in the pick-and-roll under pressure in the final 4 minutes, emphasizing attacking the rim for a layup finish or drawing contact. Target: At least 4 free throw attempts per game (compared to 1/1 in this game) and direct involvement in 3 possessions in the decisive quarter.
