Analysis Summary

In his weakest quarter of games, he contributed an average of only -1.5 - almost no measurable contribution - compared to an average of 7.2 in the window and 21.5 on his best nights. This means the average relies on some games, not all of them. His minutes ranged between 3 and 26 · Some of the variance is rotation rather than the player.

A 10-game window was chosen because below that the average is too noisy (standard error of 3.2 points in 5 games vs. 2.2 in 10), and above it mixes different periods and roles.

To Preserve

- High efficiency finishing on drives and in the paint: 2P% stands at 62% (23/37) in the window and climbed to 71% (15/21) in the last 3 games. This data is accompanied by high consistency in shot selection at the rim and an impressive 88th league percentile.
- Explosive offensive contribution at peak minutes: In the last 3 games with an average of 25.7 minutes, he contributed 14.0 points and 5.0 assists, indicating a high ability to produce numbers when given significant rotation time on the court.

To Improve

- Curbing turnovers during heavy load minutes: An average of 1.8 turnovers was recorded in the window (29th percentile) with a high concentration of 39% of turnovers in the second quarter (7 out of 18), which harms the team's offensive stability. Action: When handling the ball in the second quarter, release the first pass within 3 seconds instead of dribbling against a double-team. Target: Reduce turnovers to no more than 1.0 in the second quarter per game.
- Increasing 3-point volume and accuracy: Shooting at a low volume of 33% (4/12) in the window, which dropped to 22% (2/9) in the last 3 games. Action: In catch-and-shoot situations beyond the arc, shoot with confidence without hesitating or driving into traffic. Target: Increase volume to at least 3 shots per game and maintain an accuracy above 35%.

- Foul management in crucial quarters: Accumulated 10 fouls in the window with a concentration of 30% in quarter 1 and 30% in quarter 3. Action: When defending the ball-handler in half-opening quarters, maintain arm's length instead of initiating unnecessary contact. Target: Finish the game with a maximum of 1 personal foul by halftime.

3-Week Plan

1. The Biggest Lever: Passing management and decision making: With an average of 1.8 turnovers and a peak of turnovers in the second quarter (39%), the action is to execute safe passes and avoid forcing difficult passes out of pressure. Target: Lower the average turnovers below 1.5 per game.
2. Expanding shooting range: With a low volume of 4/12 (33%) from three, the action is personal training for catch-and-shoot shots in the corners. Target: Reach 40% shooting from beyond the arc at a volume of at least 3 attempts per game.
3. Controlling early fouls: With 3 fouls in quarter 1 and 3 in quarter 3 out of 10 total, the action is maintaining distance and preventing sending players to the line. Target: No more than 1 foul in the first six minutes of each half.
